

MARRIED.NEFF—DUBBS.

On March 18th, 1888, by Rev. A. A. Cober, Mr. Jacob B. Neff to sister Chloe Dubbs, both of Milford, Ind.

STILSON—COX.

At the residence of the bride's parents near Plymouth, Ind., March 20th, 1888, by Eld. A. H. Massena, Elmer E. Stilson and Sister Clara Cox. They are an estimable couple and their future prospects are bright.

OUR DEAD.

RAMSEY.—Sister Eliza Jane, wife of our esteemed brother, Eld. D. F. Ramsey, of the Conemaugh congregation, died at East Conemaugh, Cambria Co., Pa., on the 11th day of March, 1888, aged 39 years and 1 month.

Deceased was a daughter of Bro. Peter Albough, deceased; was born in Cambria Co., Pa., and resided during her life time, in the vicinity of the place of her birth. On the 19th of February, 1870, she was united in marriage with Bro. Ramsey, and six children were born unto them, but four of them died in their infancy, leaving a bereaved husband and two daughters, one in her fifteenth year and the other in her eighth year, to mourn an irreparable loss.

She was a member of the church of the Brethren for about eleven years; had been in declining health for about two years; for about four months was unable to attend to her household duties, and was confined to her bed for nearly two months immediately preceding her death, but bore her sufferings with true Christian fortitude. Agreeably to her request her brethren and sisters were singing and praying at her bedside when her spirit took its flight. Shortly previous to her death, she called her children to her and admonished them to be true and faithful to their God and obey their father, assuring them if they did so, all would be well with them.

Her remains were interred on the 13th inst., in a cemetery near her late home. The funeral services were conducted by Eld. W. A. Adams, of Johnstown, in the presence of a large congregation of sympathizing friends and neighbors.

GORDON.

Died of Typhoid Pneumonia, after a short sickness, Feb. 2nd, A. D., 1888, Sister Etta M. Gordon, daughter of Levi and Emily Gordon, formerly near Hagerstown, Indiana, but now of Rice county, Kansas. She was aged 15 years and 10 months. About a week before her decease she called for the Elders of the church, and was anointed according to instructions in Jas. 5:16. Though she lived here only a little over a year, both church and Sabbath school can truly say, "Here thy loss we deeply feel."

Also died on Feb. 16th, of fever and spasms, James Gordon, infant son of the same parents, aged 1 year, 6 months and 15 days. Thus, in two short weeks, two of earth's fairest flowers were taken from sorrowing friends, to bloom in heaven with sweeter fragrance than earth can know.

Funeral services at the Jefferson School house, March 11th, by Eld. Enoch Eby and Jac. W. Beer.

The parents were not present because of the father's sickness. And still the death angel lingered near until March 18th, when our aged, honored and beloved brother Levi Gordon, father of the above children, fell asleep in Jesus, aged about 57 years. Thus within 40 days, a father in Israel, honored, beloved and respected by all who knew him. (A sheaf, ripened to harvest, filled with the golden grain of good works.) A daughter just blooming into womanhood with all the bright prospects and possibilities of a useful, Christian life before her, and a dear tender child, "budded on earth to bloom in heaven," were gathered from one family to their long resting to await their Master's call when he comes to receive his own.

May God's grace and the hope of eternal reunion in Heaven sustain and comfort the bereaved and broken family, for "our loss is their eternal gain."

Funeral services at the G. B. [Salem] church, March 15th, by L. E. Fahrney, Jac. W. Beer and P. J. Trostle. All his children, who are now living, were present, three of whom reside in Ind.

JAC. W. BEER.

BRAND.

In the Lanark church, Illinois, Sister Frances Brand, March 11th, 1888, aged thirty-four years, ten months and one day old. She was born May 4th, 1853, and was married Dec. 25th, 1872. She was one of the original thirty members of the Lanark church. Services by Eld. Z. T. Livengood.

SUMMERS.

Died near Louisville, Ohio, on the evening of Feb. 18th, 1888, Ray Lenore Summers, infant son of Bro. Sylvanus and sister Angie B. Summers, aged five months and eighteen days. Little Ray was a victim of brain disease. It was hard to give him up, but the thought that he is now,

"Safe in the arms of Jesus, Safe on his gentle breast," is the only source of comfort to the bereaved parents. Funeral services in the Brethren church at Louisville, by Bro. Josiah Keim assisted by J. F. Kohler of the German Baptists.

SARAH HERSHBERGER.

BOYER.—On March 1st, in Rose-dale, Cora Belle Boyer, aged 20 years, 7 months and 14 days. Funeral services by the writer assisted by Bro. Samuel Shaffer. She was buried in the union cemetery near Conemaugh.

BENJ. GOUGHNOUR.

"Nasal Voices, Catarrh and False Teeth."

A prominent English woman says the American women all have high, shrill, nasal voices and false teeth.

Americans don't like the constant twitting they get about this nasal twang, and yet it is a fact caused by our dry stimulating atmosphere, and the universal presence of catarrhal difficulties.

But why should so many of our women have false teeth?

That is more of a poser to the English. It is quite impossible to account for it except on the theory of deranged stomach action caused by imprudence in eating and by want of regular exercise.

Both conditions are unnatural. Catarrhal troubles everywhere prevail and end in cough and consumption, which are promoted by mal-nutrition induced by deranged stomach action. The condition is a modern one, one unknown to our ancestors who prevented the catarrh, cold, cough and consumption by abundant and regular use of what is now known as Warner's Log Cabin Cough and Consumption Remedy and Log Cabin Sarsaparilla, two old fashioned standard remedies handed down from our ancestors, and now exclusively put forth under the strongest guarantees of purity and efficacy by the world-famed makers of Warner's safe cure. These two remedies plentifully used as the spring and summer seasons advance give a positive assurance of freedom, both from catarrh and those dreadful and if neglected, inevitable consequences, pneumonia, lung troubles and consumption, which so generally and fatally prevail among our people.

Comrade Eli Fisher, of Salem, Henry Co., Iowa, served four years in the late war and contracted a disease called consumption by the doctors. He had frequent hemorrhages. After using Warner's Log Cabin Cough and Consumption remedy, he says, under date of Jan. 19th, 1888: "I do not bleed at the lungs any more, my cough does not bother me, and I do not have any more smothering spells." Warner's Log Cabin Rose Cream cured his wife of catarrh and she is "sound and well."

Of course we do not like to have our women called nose talkers and false teeth owners, but these conditions can be readily overcome in the manner indicated.

Deafness Can't Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.
